“ Upon hearing of my Auntie Tiny's passing , I have been saying a Prayer each night. For her children there with her, I too, know the affect it is now having on them. I pray that remembering her Love , her funny side , her laughter and her voice helps.... in this time of their loss. My condolences to all her grandchildren and any great grandchildren.

Couple years ago, I was given her phone number. When I called her and heard her voice I cried so much and so hard , I was shaking. It had been over 45 yrs..since I heard her voice. So long, too long . When I was young, and lived up there around Keshena , Wis. .. I would go to the Pow Wows with my brother,. And i would see her dancing , she was AMAZING and I was so in awe of her. . Her art and the way she handle those hoops was just grand. I wanted to be like my Aunt, she was beautiful ,and she was happy all the time . After she married, I stayed some summer's with her in Sheboygan I think , that was the town. We had some good summers together. So rest in Peace now Aunt...I'm sure your journey will now carry you to Family waiting. Im truley sorry I have missed the chance to hug you.. Your Neice Jacqueline

“ I have many memories of my dear friend, Tiny. She was “Tiny”, but mighty , strong, intelligent, funny, and beautiful. She was a resident , as I am, at Birch Hill Nursing Home and this is where we reconnected and our sisterhood continued. I loved Tiny’s attitude and how she never gave up on herself. She loved her daughters, her grandchildren, a very proud grandmother, like I am, and she loved Jacquie’s homemade cooking. I will truly miss my dear friend and cousin. My sincere sympathy to her family.

“ So sorry to hear this, Tiny was a good friend to my Brother Waubeno, He is probably playing guitar and singing her in the happy hunting grounds. Condolences to her daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren from the Awonohopay family.

“ Tiny was a wonderful person to be around. She was always joking and laughing. There was no way to be around Tiny without laughing. I will always remember her dance steps, she loved to dance to a good tune and very good at the moves too, and hard to keep up with. Dance away Tiny.....your home now.

My deepest sympathy and condolence to her daughters; Jackie, Lolly, and Bobbi Joe. May the Dear Lord help each of you feel your Mom’s presence right next to you during the difficult times you will each endure.

Tiny..... Fly high with the other Angels on your Journey Home.

With Lots of Blessings,
Bubbles
